Mission Canvas Designs – Welcomed to DYC

Meet Jae Haney & Visit His Shop

Jae Haney bought a 1981 Gulfstar Sailmaster 39 through Gordon Inge, Chesapeake Yacht Sales, 3 years ago. As Jae began to love, restore and sail his boat, one of the projects he did himself was all new canvas, including bimini. This restoration began the idea of working on boat canvas. Jae went to work at Deltaville Ship's Tailor and trained under Scot Victor and now has opened Mission Canvas Designs- on site at Deltaville Yachting Center.

But, as Paul Harvey would say...here's the rest of the story....

Jae's Dad retired after 23 years serving in the US Army, Jae's Mom has 40 years as a professional tailor, including wedding dress design. Jae dedicated 20 years to serving our country in the US Army Special Operations as a parachute rigger and medic. As Jae says "I was always fixing things and putting things back together. I love to help people."

When I asked Jae what the most challenging part of canvas work, he answered,

“Me... I am my own worst critic. I always want a better product. Each canvas project is unique and I strive to make each one the best it can be. So I challenge myself constantly.”

Jae continued, “the most fun part of canvas work, is definitely the people. I have met people from all around the world and I get to be part of their adventure. They come to me with a problem that needs fixing and I get to make it happen.”

JAE HANEY LOOKS FORWARD TO MEETING YOU

MISSION CANVAS DESIGNS BUSINESS CARDS

Jae would love to have you stop in to see his canvas shop and chat. He is very happy to be part of NYC’s boating facility. “I noticed immediately that NYC treats people like family, welcoming everyone - transients, long time slip holders and fisher people are all treated the same.”

On Saturday, May 4th, 10 AM to 4 PM, Mission Canvas Designs will be part of Boat Lover’s Day at NYC and will host a DIY Canvas Mini-Workshop. Drop in the canvas shop and ask Jae about the details. ↓

Ian Geeson, Chesapeake Yacht Sales Broker

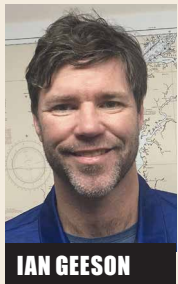

A great contact for Hampton Roads area boaters

Chesapeake Yacht Sales is happy to announce the addition of Ian Geeson as a part-time yacht broker in the Hampton Roads area. You may have met Ian because he has helped deliver many boats to and from DYC.

Ian has been boating for most of his life. His grandparents kept a sailboat in Deltaville and eventually moved to the area to enjoy their retirement on the water. Ian's parents soon followed, moving their young family to the Northern Neck and purchasing a 30' sailboat that the family, including Ian, would take around the Chesapeake and eventually to the Bahamas.

Ian was the President of the Sea Scouts in High School and taught at The Annapolis Sailing School during college break. He holds a 100-ton Captain's License and has operated power and sailboats from Maine to the Caribbean. Many of his trips over the past decade were deliveries for new owners of boats brokered by Chesapeake Yacht Sales.

Ian and his wife and daughter live in Virginia Beach. They are enthusiastic about multi-hulls and are part owners of a performance sailing catamaran that they cruise in the Bay and Carolina Sounds.

Ian Geeson is a knowledgeable and pleasant individual who will help get you into the boat that's right for you. Ian will be on site at DYC for Boat Lover's Day on Saturday, May 4th. We know you will enjoy getting to know him better. ↓

Do It – Don't Think

The Beginning of A "Liberty" Adventure

Beverly and John C. have decided to do 'that next big thing'. In November, they plan to head South aboard their newly purchased 1998 Catalina 400MK1. John grew up on the Chesapeake Bay and comes from a lengthy lineage of boat professionals, with a great grandfather who owned a boatyard in Mexico. He spent his youth enjoying a Hobie 18 and has used a variety of boats since then. Beverly is new to boating, but with an adventurous spirit and retirement ahead, she is ready to liveaboard with John and their sweet Collie dog, Ceana.

BEVERLY AND JOHN C. AT DOCK WITH S/V "LIBERTY", 1998 CATALINA 400MK1

For their 25th anniversary, John and Beverly cruised the area around Grenada aboard a captained charter. The warm weather and abundance of scenery sealed the decision to cast off their land locked home. The couple hopes to cruise extensively, staying 90 days or less per location. Their goal is to chase the warm weather, staying long enough in each location to get a feel for the different anchorages.

John and Beverly have been taking classes to learn all they can about weather, safety and navigation. They plan to have a professional captain spend time with them aboard "Liberty" to learn specific boat handling as it relates to their Catalina. They have worked through the shedding of possessions, only storing 'non-replaceable' items, while selling or giving away the rest. "We are both retired, with no kids...all the rest is just 'stuff'", they laughed.

When asked to share advice for those considering the liveaboard cruising life style, the couple suggested exploring/experiencing other adventurous life styles- like motorcycling, RV travel, etc. to be sure that boating is the 'ticket' for you. They also suggested checking into medical care while cruising and taking all the boating classes you can to shore up concerns before leaving for a long cruise. John and Beverly C. will attend DYC's Boat Lover's Day on May 4th, if you'd like to talk with them about the liveaboard adventure process and what they've learned so far.

Keep an eye out for "Liberty" as this adventurous couple embraces the laid back attitude of liveaboard life. Their final advice is, "Do it- Don't Think." ↓

Saturday, May 4th Boat Lover's Day at Deltaville Yachting Center & Chesapeake Yacht Sales

New Boats on Display

From 10 AM to 4 PM on Saturday, May 4th, all of us at DYC will be welcoming new and old friends during Boat Lover's Day at the marina. Gordon Inge and Ian Geeson will be showing boats that are on site. New boats on display are a 2024 Catalina 355 and 2024 Catalina 425 along with a 2023 True North Cruiser. Please see www.dycboat.com to find the used power and sail boats listed by Chesapeake Yacht Sales. Our brokers can help you find other boats as well, using the search tools specific to YBAA brokers.

Lew Grimm will lead 'Behind the Scenes Marina Tours' which you can sign up for at Tammy Hock's welcome area. Laura Powell will have her Sea Salt Dessert Truck on site to tempt your sweet tooth. Jae Haney, Mission Canvas Designs, will have mini DIY workshops to help you learn more about doing boat canvas repairs. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 66 will be available to schedule Vessel Safety Inspections as well as to share boat safety drills. Kendall will be on site displaying Link'D X Ken Permanent Jewelry.

We are grateful to host a table of ‘Catalina Ambassadors’- Jenn and Todd L. along with Bob and Debbie S. These happy Catalina owners love to be on the water and are happy to answer questions about how boating ‘works’ and why it is a healthy pastime. They cruise with both sail and power boat friends, so they are helpful mentors if you have questions. We love boaters, but are so happy to have these ambassadors along side.

Hunter, Tammy and Onna will be welcoming you with mini sandwiches, drinks, doorprizes and a small visitor’s gift. We look forward to making you into a BOAT LOVER! ↓

Around The Marina

We Work Hard to Help You Enjoy Your Boat

You will notice that each Spring we work to refresh or add to DYC amenities.

Enjoy the new pool liner along with refurbished pool fencing (chairs & umbrellas will be replaced as needed).

Inside both the DYC Captains Lounge/ clubhouse and the back entrance of DYC Ship’s Store, you will find lending libraries of books and complimentary magazines. If the shelves are full , do not leave donations without discussing with Tammy at front DYC office.

Docks and finger piers are walked by DYC personnel daily and repaired as needed. We appreciate you letting the DYC office know of concerns.

We continue to provide ‘county water’ in all DYC bathrooms at a per gallon cost to the marina. We know you will show care about water usage and alert the office of any noticeable leaks. Dock water functions with on site well water.

The DYC Boatel area has been maintained and improved for boating season. The porta potty dump station is behind the boatel. If you need help using the manual dump station, please see DYC Service Department. A dock side Pump Out Station is available with DYC Service supervision.

The Boaters’ Boutique (fun clothing, hats, jackets & more) & Ship’s Store (cleaners, safety gear, cruising guides & more) is open Monday through Saturday, 9 to 4:30, with Saturday hours beginning on April 6th. ↓
