The Oceanis 473 is widely regarded as one of Beneteau's most successful bluewater cruising platforms, combining spacious accommodations, comfortable sailing characteristics, and practical systems access in a proven offshore-capable design. Outlaw King has recently undergone an extensive recommissioning period with significant attention paid to vessel systems, electrical infrastructure, hull preparation, safety equipment, and operational readiness.

The vessel features a spacious owner's cabin, generous salon, two staterooms and heads, abundant storage, and the comfort expected from a cruising yacht in this class. She offers an excellent platform for coastal cruising, ICW transit, Bahamas passages, Caribbean exploration, or full-time liveaboard use.

The vessel is in good condition, the interior furniture is all in very good condition. The boat was extensively cleaned after receiving it from previous owners, full wipe down interior, bilges and aft storage compartments.
